Human Rights
Funders Network

We are inviting nominations to join HRFN's Steering Committee. This role is an opportunity to play a guiding, strategic, and governance role at our organization, starting July 2022. We are seeking to fill up to 3 positions.

HRFN's Steering Committee is an extraordinary and inspiring group of people from all regions of the world. The SC includes human rights practitioners, philanthropists, and activists and represents a range of grantmaking foundations and movements. They promote the mission, vision, and values of HRFN, provide strategic direction, and ensure that HRFN has the organizational and financial resources necessary to meet its goals as a membership network. Learn about current SC members here.

Key responsibilities include:

- Act as an HRFN ambassador, promote HRFN's work within the network and beyond.
- Promote the mission, vision, and values of HRFN.
- Oversee the legal and financial management of the organization.
- Mobilize resources and contribute to the organization's financial success.
- Support membership recruitment and engagement.
- Join at least one sub-committee or accept an officer role, attend related meetings.
- Serve a 3 year term with renewal possibility of 3 more years. The term will begin in July 2022.

Benefits:

- Play a guiding, strategic and governance role at HRFN.
- Collaborate with and learn from other values-aligned individuals.

Who we are looking for:

We are looking for individuals representing grantmaking institutions and civil society organizations:

- Committed to human rights and social justice and to transforming systems of oppression.
- Interested in helping shape and support HRFN's mission and goals to transform global human rights philanthropy.

- Availability to attend four yearly SC meetings. They are currently virtual and will return to in-person when it is safe for all to travel. 2022 Meetings are three hours in length and are scheduled on 14 July & 27 October.
- Working knowledge of English.
